SPRING SUMMER 2022

THE COAST IS CALLING

1937 - 2022

2022 marks our 85th year. Over the past eight decades, we have enjoyed merging innovation and design with a timeless aesthetic for both country lovers and sailors. The Dubarry brand caters for a huge plethora of interests and lifestyles – from dog walking and countryside sports to high-performance sailing. Regardless of where you sit on the athlete/leisure scale, all our footwear, lifestyle clothing and outerwear has been skilfully constructed to ensure that whatever adventure you undertake they will meet your needs.

This new collection is a merger of style and practicality. It's a complete, coordinated assortment of clothing, shoes, boots and accessories that you can mix and match to suit the conditions at sea or ashore, and comes together to keep you comfortable, rain or shine.

Browse our selection of outerwear crafted to keep the wind's chill at bay without being bulky, discover fine knitwear layers that are the perfect addition to any weekend bag, and shoes and boots that will keep the smile on your face regardless of the weather.

The difference is in the details. We're known for our fabrics that stretch to move with you, linings that wick away moisture, and breathable yet waterproof membranes. Our efficient, quick-drying insulation pairs perfectly with our layers that let you adapt to cold weather, when more is more. And when it's warmer, rely on Dubarry's UV/odour protection technology to keep you fresh and protected. In terms of footwear, choose from boots to deck shoes with sure-footed grip and comfort you can trust whether you're on board a sailboat or patrolling the local village in search of the best fish and chips. All of this combines to form the perfect remedy to any unpredictable coast-side adventure.

THE WALKERS

STRETCH YOUR LEGS, EASILY

A beach break doesn't always mean cementing yourself to a sunlounger. A proper seaside holiday involves walking. Whether you walk simply because you enjoy it, or to keep you warm, or in search of the best ice-cream or hidden cove that promises to 'just be around the corner' you need to make sure you're comfortable. You never know what could crop up.

Our new range of jackets and cottons for him and her are designed with versatility in mind, meaning you can clock up the miles in comfort before strolling straight into a dinner reservation and not feel underdressed. Made from innovative fabrics such as waterproof and breathable outer shell, Tencel™, Bamboo and high-quality cotton, they have been engineered to ensure comfort to the wearer. We like to pair them with a pair of our EVA footbed deck shoes or country boots to keep the feet happy too.

THE ALL-ROUNDERS YOU NEVER KNOW WHAT'S IN STORE

For some, the coast holds an appeal all-year round. They get as much joy battling the beaches in the March wind as they do finding a quiet corner in the height of summer. When venturing to the seaside in spring, there is always a sense of the unknown. What will the weather be like? Will the tide be in or out? Will the water be flat or chomping at the sands, and will the dog ever come back when he is called?

The Spring Summer 22 footwear and clothing collection has been created to keep you ready for any weather event and any activity. You'll find water resistant shoes to wade after errant children, caps to hide tired eyes from the night before, lightweight layers you can build up and strip down again according to the weather to keep you covered, not cooked.

THE SAILORS

GET ON BOARD

Heading to the beach without getting involved in some kind of sailing is similar to heading to a country pub and not ordering from the local specials of the day menu. It's simply not done. It doesn't matter if you have a power boat, a sailboat, a rowboat or the kids race dinghys - the key to enjoying life on the water is having the right gear to cope with it.

Whether you're a leisure sailor, or take it slightly more seriously, you can never compromise on style and performance. If you're escaping the country in favour of some watersports, then look no further than our NonSlip-NonMarking™ deck shoe range and assortment of technical clothing.

As all sailors know (or soon find out), it's very important to have the right personal kit. Wearability is key. Reliability is required. Quality is crucial. Good design makes a difference. And that's what Dubarry's Aquatech Collection of active sailing wear is all about.

Designed by sailors and worn by sailors, our Aquatech range for men and women combines technical performance with superb comfort and premium nautical style. It's a complete, coordinated collection of clothes, shoes, boots and accessories that you can mix and match to suit the conditions, at sea or ashore.

The difference is in the details. Fabrics that stretch to move with you. Linings that wick away moisture and breathable, waterproof membranes. Efficient, quick-drying insulation. Layers that let you adapt to the weather. UV protection and odour prevention. Sure-footed grip and support for your feet on a pitching, steeply heeled deck. All of this in a wide choice of smart-casual styles that can be worn almost anywhere.
